

I request that you do NOT allow banking or any other companies to begin calling ex-customers. Being on a do not call list means do NOT call period. Just because these businesses dump huge sums of money into politicians pockets is no reason to make changes in a very good law.